17th IAMC Annual Meeting

Baekyang Nuri of Yonsei University, Seoul, Republic of Korea

4-6 November 2024

LOGISTICAL INFORMATION

Seoul is the capital of the Republic of Korea and the country's most populous urban area. The broader Seoul Capital Area, encompassing Gyeonggi province and Incheon metropolitan city, emerged as the world's fourth largest metropolitan economy in 2014, trailing only Tokyo, New York City, and Los Angeles, hosting more than half of South Korea's population.

Within the Seoul Capital Area lie five UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Changdeok Palace, Hwaseong Fortress, Jongmyo Shrine, Namhansanseong, and the Royal Tombs of the Joseon dynasty. Furthermore, Seoul has witnessed a surge in modern architectural development, with iconic landmarks including the N Seoul Tower, the 63 Building, the Lotte World Tower, the Dongdaemun Design Plaza, Lotte World, the Trade Tower, COEX, IFC Seoul. Seoul was named the World Design Capital in 2010 and has served as the national hub for the music, entertainment, and cultural industries that have propelled K-pop and the Korean Wave to international prominence.

How to reach Seoul

From Incheon International Airport

Incheon International Airport, located in Incheon next to Seoul, is Korea's largest hub airport and serves most long-distance international flights to the capital. It offers various public transportation options, including the airport railroad, airport buses, and city buses connected to Seoul. Both the airport railroad and city buses are available for reasonable fares. Bus fares 1,500 to 2,000 KRW for a one-way, and limousine buses 15,000 KRW to 19,000 KRW for a one-way journey.

Travel time: About 40 minutes ~1 hour by airport railway / 1 hour ~ 1 hour 30 minutes by airport bus -Detailed public transportation usage information

From Gimpo International Airport

Gimpo International Airport is located within Seoul and has short-distance international and domestic flights. You can travel anywhere in downtown Seoul from the airport by city bus or subway, and the fare is 1,500 to 2,000 KRW for a one-way ticket.

Travel time (to the city center of Seoul): About 30 minutes by subway - Detailed public transportation usage information
